

ANGEL BONILLA

Singer | Actor | Producer

At the age of 6, Angel, who was born a male, could not ignore her feminine soul and strong sense of being a girl. Coming from a conservative Catholic family in the Philippines, transitioning was not easy. During this difficult time, Angel discovered her love of music. By the time she was 16 years old, Angel had transitioned into a beautiful young woman, and her family moved to the United States a few years later. Angel currently lives in Los Angeles, where she is pursuing her dream not only as a singer and Actress, but in her new role as a Producer. Angel Bonilla made history when she took the stage as the NBC'S The Voice first trans contestant to turn a chair, under Team Adam. In 2020, she played the Phlebotomist on "I Can See Your Voice," on FOX singing for Music Superstar Pat Monahan of Train, And host Ken Jeong. You can see Angel's journey to recovery from Covid19/ Pandemic in the Documentary "Caretaker" by Chasing the Dream Productions on PBS. Nominated for a GLAAD Award.
